This book celebrates The McFerrin Collection of Fabergé masterpieces and reveals items that have never been published before. Also highlighted are a selection of important Imperial Russian pieces that appeared in the first book on the collection, From a Snowflake to an Iceberg: The McFerrin Collection (2013), along with a few of the collectors' personal favourites. As the preferred jeweller to the Russian Tsars and European royalty at the turn of the 20th century, Peter Carl Fabergé (1846-1920) created an array of objets d'art that exude both opulence and innovation, and tell of a period in history likely never to be repeated. The McFerrin Collection has become one of the largest privately owned Fabergé collections in the world, and is on long-term loan to the Houston Museum of Natural Science in Texas. Contents: Catherine the Great; Under a Diamond Glass: Portrait Diamonds, Fabergé, and The McFerrin Collection; Hahn; The Fabergé Legacy; Imperial Presentation; Bell Pushes; Everyday Objects; Cigarette Cases; Animals; Floral; Frames; Fans; Hardstones; Eggs; Timepieces; Small Boxes; Jewelry; Ladies' Accessories; Maid-of-Honor Badges; Tsar and Tsarina; Alix and Pollie: A Lifelong Friendship; Olga; Xenia; Maria Feodorovna; MINNI's Desk Clock: A Private Gift from a Public Person; Maria Pavlovna; Greece; Nobel; Rothschild; Tiffany Art Glass; Tiaras; Cloisonné; Tricentennial; World War I; Religious Items; The Last Chapter; Fabergé's Workmasters.

Biographie de l'auteur

Artie and Dorothy McFerrin's interest in the art of Fabergé flourished because of their love of the pieces and also the jeweller's successful entrepreneurship. Artie is an entrepreneur himself in the chemical manufacturing industry and wrote The Executioner (2015), a comprehensive modernised update of Think and Grow Rich by Napoleon Hill. Artie shares his mastery of developing the right mind frame, habits, and intangible principles for success in this new classic. The McFerrins reside in Houston, Texas, and enjoy Texas A&M football and spending time with their family.
